SUNDAY LECTIONARY READINGS

Acts 2. 1-21

John 7. 37-39

THE COLLECT

O God the king of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.' When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.'

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

GOSPEL READING

John 17. 1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God, giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom: confirm us in this mission, and help us to live the good news we proclaim; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PARISH NEWS – please contact the Editors with any articles, letters & ideas: htparishnews@gmail.com. MAY edition in church today!

RESTORATION OF THE CHALICE – following the discussion at the APCM, and at the request of our bishops and archdeacons, Sarah and Joanna have agreed to offer the chalice - the 'common cup' – once again, as from Pentecost. We are strongly discouraged from using 'intinction' (dipping of the wafer) as this increases the possibility of any contamination. If you do not wish to receive Communion in both kinds and to continue with our current practice, that is absolutely fine. And we are reminded by Bishop Stephen that to receive the consecrated bread alone is to receive Christ in all his sacramental fullness, and that this has always been our inherited theological understanding. As a consequence of this decision, if anyone would like to offer themselves as a server or chalice administrant, please contact Joanna or Sarah as soon as possible so that training and induction can be arranged.

SUNDAY 8AM EUCHARIST – sadly, as from 1 June and due to very low numbers and limited clergy availability, this will now only be celebrated on the last Sunday of the month.

ANNE BOSTOCK RIP – Anne died very peacefully after a brief stay at Wiltshire Heights on Saturday evening. Her funeral will be held at Holy Trinity on Monday, 5 June at 2pm.

DEANERY SYNOD REFRESHMENTS – the first session of the new Bradford Deanery Synod will take place at Holy Trinity on Wednesday, 14 June at 7.30pm. Refreshments are served part-way through the evening (max 40 people) – tea/coffee, biscuits, soft drinks. Offers of help would be very gratefully received by Joanna please?

PRAYER FOR SUDAN

God our Father, whose son Jesus Christ wept over your people, because they knew not the way of peace and were as sheep without a shepherd; hear our prayer for all the people of Sudan. Turn the hearts of their leaders to reconciliation and peace. Bless Archbishop Ezekiel, his bishops and clergy that they may have the strength and support to be true shepherds of your people in the midst of war. Strengthen those who seek to bring peace, who heal the sick and feed the starving and hasten the time when all nations will own your just and gentle rule and receive your gift of peace. Amen
