THE COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Nehemiah 8.1-3;5-6;8-10

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.'

GOSPEL READING

Luke 4.14-21

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.' And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM JENNY - LENT COURSE 2025: Today, I include news of this year's Lent Course which will be based around the Pilgrim Course, A Course for the Christian Journey, with our focal point for Lent being The Lord's Prayer. The course will run across the Benefice of Bradford on Avon Holy Trinity, Westwood and Wingfield, in six sessions during Lent, (one session every week, with locations and times to be confirmed), between 9th March, Ash Wednesday, and 13th April, Palm Sunday. The aim of this year's Lent Course is to help us to explore discipleship, and will include prayer, conversation starters, creative connected activities, reflection on readings, and reflective questions.

During Lent, I would usually also run a Confirmation Course, which in previous years I have based around themes of the Pilgrim Course for all age groups. If you would like to explore being confirmed this year, or know of anyone who may like to do so, please do be in touch via my email address which is noted at the top of this bulletin (please note the change to my email address).

I am excited to note that we now have nine baptisms currently being planned in this year.

Jesus calls us to follow, 'happy are those whose hearts are set on the pilgrim way' (Psalm 84.5).

Further details will follow next week.

Yours,

Jenny
