EASTER SUNDAY

Welcome to our Service today

And welcome if you are reading this at home

HYMNS FOR TODAY'S SERVICE

9.30am Sung Eucharist

147 – Jesus Christ is risen today

150 – Love's redeeming work is done

162 – Ye choirs of new Jerusalem

160 – Thine be the glory

THE COLLECT

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity. Amen.

FIRST READING

Acts 10. 34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

GOSPEL READING

John 20. 1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." ' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of Life, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLUTEN FREE WAFERS – these are available for those who need them. Please let the welcomers know when you arrive and inform the priest when you come to receive Communion

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER - St Mary Tory. First Thursday of the month is 1 May. Everyone is welcome to join us at the pilgrim chapel 6-7pm.

WEEKLY PRAYERS at noon every Thursday in the Saxon Church for Israel and Palestine using prayer from Sabeel based in Jerusalem, 11.50 - 12.10. Everyone warmly welcome.

GOODWILL OFFERING ENVELOPES In response to requests from some members of the congregation, these are now available on the welcome desk for those who wish to use them. The PCC has agreed to trial their use for a period of 6 months, after which they will assess the cost effectiveness of setting up a continuing weekly envelope scheme.

MESSAGE FROM JENNY - Happy Easter!
Easter Reflection

The Gospel of John offers profound insight into the meaning of Jesus' resurrection. At its heart is a message of hope: knowing you are deeply loved, loved in your life, and loved through and beyond everything. This love looks to Jesus, who continually points us to the Father and shows us that love is his meaning.

We are commissioned to carry hope and love in our hearts and to carry that love out into the world. Hold fast to that this Easter and trust that God's order of peace, forgiveness, and wholeness will come to the earth, with all humanity living in harmony. All prayers and every blessing
Yours, Jenny

THE STREET MARKET – David Hare has kindly agreed to act as lead organiser for this year's Street Market on 5 July This is our major fundraiser and an important community event So please put this date in your diary and look out for upcoming opportunities to volunteer to help on the day and / or provide things to sell at the various church stalls.

SAFEGUARDING - In setting minds at rest, a newspaper article last week about safeguarding (which concerned some who volunteer in the church) referred to those with 'positions of responsibility and to leaders in the church', with people already aware they need to complete training. This is already underway, and we will run sessions with those eligible soon and who would like support. However, we would also welcome anyone who feels they would like to know more about safeguarding to join us. If you have any concerns, or to express an interest, please feel welcome to get in touch. Andrea Unwin
