69 – Breathe on me breath of God

26 – Alleluia, sing to Jesus

321 – Love divine, all loves excelling

33 – Angel voices

THE COLLECT

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

PSALM 104.26-35

26 There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it.

27 These all look to you to give them their food in due season;

28 when you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

29 When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

30 When you send forth your spirit,[a] they are created; and you renew the face of the ground.

31 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; may the Lord rejoice in his works—

32 who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke.

33 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

34 May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord.

35 Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul. Praise the Lord!

FIRST READING

Acts 2. 1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

GOSPEL READING

John 14. 8-17, 25-27

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.'

MESSAGE FROM JENNY - The liturgical season culminates with Pentecost, leading us into Ordinary Time. Yet, as we enter this ordinary season, we are reminded that the Holy Spirit can make every day extraordinary. We are commissioned to live in peace, love, and serve in Christ's name.

The Holy Spirit empowers the Church at Pentecost to fulfill its calling. As we affirm and reaffirm this shared calling, each person is encouraged to become the person God created them to be.

But our calling is not static; it is a journey. Living out our faith through love and service is an ongoing process.

In this Spirit, we thank everyone who serves in this parish, using the unique gifts God has entrusted to you. Your dedication and service are beloved and vital in making this community a living testimony to God's grace.

Thank you, Yours Jenny

WINGFIELD FETE – Saturday, 14 June. All are warmly invited – do come and support and have some

SUNDAY WORSHIP! - Coffee and refreshments follow TODAYs service! All welcome. Pentecost Sunday on 8 June this year is often called the birthday of the church. Be with us in Wingfield and Westwood as celebrate this joyful, Spirit-filled celebration, care of the Holy Spirit! Come and see! As our churches grow, we would love to see you. Please feel welcome to invite neighbours, friends and family. The call to follow Jesus is the call to gather disciples. We look forward to welcoming all! With thanks for your partnership in the Gospel!

VOLUNTEERS' WEEK – we honour and recognise the service and invaluable contribution everyone makes.

Whether serving with hospitality groups, as bell ringers and captains, in choir, the community café, as community engagers, flower teams, friends, fundraisers, with Mainly Music, the Music Group, as trustees, PCCs, in pastoral service, as readers, in the sacristy, through the Saxon Club, or as welcomers, we thank you. We continue to encourage our communities to explore ways to be together, to celebrate, appreciate, and inspire one another's gifts as partners in the Gospel.

IF OPERA – It is exciting that IF Opera are performing at Wingfield this summer! Details can be found on their website: www.ifopera.com

CONFIRMATION - Confirmation is an integral part of a lifetime journey of faith as a follower of Jesus Christ.

The next diocesan Confirmation service is at Salisbury Cathedral on November 1st, 2025. We have candidates for Confirmation this year, and our Confirmation Preparation sessions will begin very soon. We are delighted about this Good News! Please get in touch with Jenny if you, too, would like to explore this further or know of others who may. Please be encouraged; you are welcome to express any thoughts about joining our preparation if you would like to be baptised and confirmed.

Thank you to Mavis of Holy Trinity, who inspires us to follow God's call. Mavis and her story of faith are featured in the Salisbury diocese's news story and campaign, 'Share Your Story,' which is included in the Church Times this week. You can read this online or on social media with the Diocese. Faith is extraordinary in every age! Thank you for sharing your story!

Confirm, O Lord, your servant with your Holy Spirit. Amen
