HYMNS FOR TODAY'S SERVICE

9.30am Remembrance Service

All hymns are in the printed Order of Service for today

All My Hope on God is Founded

I Vow to Thee My Country

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

The National Anthem

COLLECT

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

READING

Matthew 5. 1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

BIRTHDAYS - Happy Birthday, prayers and blessings to all those with birthdays in this season.

THANK YOU to our Churchwardens and the PCC teams leading the Remembrance Sunday Services.

MESSAGE FROM JENNY - Remembrance Sunday

- On this Remembrance Sunday we gather in gratitude to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice, giving their lives so that we might live in freedom and democracy. We honour their courage and steadfast commitment, and hold before God the cost of war and the value of peace. We also remember those we love who have died recently. Their absence is felt deeply, yet we trust in God's care, and in the quiet hope that no act of love or life of goodness is ever lost. Jesus reminds us: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." May we honour the peace for which so many gave their all, and seek to live as peacemakers ourselves, showing justice, mercy, and compassion in our daily lives. We give thanks for our churchwardens, whose leadership enables our communities to gather safely to remember and reflect.

Prayer

Gracious God, we remember those who gave their lives in war and conflict, and entrust to you those we love who have died recently. We pray especially for The Revd Canon David Driscoll and for Lindsay and their family. Comfort all who mourn, and strengthen us to live faithfully in hope and love. Through Christ, the risen Lord, we pray.

CHUPPA SUNDAY – next week at 9.30am. All welcome - and don't forget to save room for the cake!

HOLY TRINITY CONCERT

SERIES - The Music of Remembrance – Thursday, 13 November, 12pm at Holy Trinity
We thank Martin for his inspiring organ concert this week, with its broad and enjoyable repertoire. We are delighted that he will be giving a special concert to mark the season of Remembrance, which we hope everyone will enjoy. Martin promises some of the foot-tapping marches familiar from the Royal Albert Hall's Festival of Remembrance, interwoven with gentle, poignant music offering comfort for those remembering loved ones. The programme includes works by Coates, Walford Davies, Elgar, Butterworth, Fauré, Barber, Vaughan Williams, and others. Martin writes: Over the last week or so, I have enjoyed putting the finishing touches to my programme for this concert which I much look forward to presenting next Thursday. I hope I have struck a balance between the pomp and circumstance on the one hand, but also the simplicity of the beautiful national airs that we hear from the cenotaph each year, all of which help us commemorate and remember the fallen, and to be thankful for the service of the millions who gave their lives for all that know today. I am not focussing purely on Remembrance, but also on Remembering, and therefore, a slightly different theme is woven through the programme for those who are thinking of their own loved ones who are no longer with us.

After a short pause in December for seasonal music and carol services, the new concert series resumes on Thursday, 29 January, with the young musicians of Monkton Combe School, starting at 12.30pm. Refreshments are served 30 minutes before the concert. All are welcome!
