THE COLLECT

O God, who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 60. 1-6

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 2. 1-12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel." ' Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

BIRTHDAYS - Happy Birthday, prayers and blessings to all those with birthdays in this season.

THANK YOU to The Revd Tim Hawkings, The Venerable Louise Ellis, Archdeacon of Wilts, and to Bishop Robert for presiding and preaching at today's services, while the Rector is on an Epiphany holiday.

WITH GREAT SADNESS we share that Sylvia Stanes died peacefully on the evening of 30 December. We send love and prayers to Ian and his family. Also, Barbara Adamson died on 1 January, may she rest in peace. We send love and prayers to Barbara's family.

ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS THANKSGIVING

- Congratulations and sincere thanks to all who have given so generously of their time, gifts, and energy throughout Advent and these Christmas days. We have received many positive and encouraging messages reflecting the richness of these celebrations, not least our community Tree Festival with Carols Around the Trees, services of Lessons and Carols, and the Christmas services across the Benefice. We have been privileged to accompany very many worshippers during this season, with extraordinary numbers of children and young people, together with their families, attending Christingle services in every church, as well as Midnight Mass and Christmas Day worship. Each service, and every team working faithfully behind the scenes, is deeply appreciated. Our grateful thanks to Martin for his musical leadership, and to the Choir of Holy Trinity, whose harmonies and soaring descants will not be forgotten! We extend heartfelt thanks to Bishop Robert, Bishop John, The Revd Tim Hawkings, Graham Dove, chalice bearers, readers, intercessors, stewards, and all serving in this season. And thank you to the team for Christingle on Christmas Eve, Martin, Andrea, Zabe, Clive and David. All of this we hold lightly, knowing the profound privilege of worship, offered in humility before Christ, the Prince of Peace. God with us. Epiphany calls. Thanks be to God.

EPIPHANY begins with the Feast of Epiphany, the arrival of the magi in Bethlehem. Until this point the Messiah's coming was centred on Israel alone. And then, rather unexpectedly and mysteriously, three Gentiles appear, people who intuitively sense this child's birth is good news for them too. This is the heart of Epiphany: the revelation that Christ's birth is not a small event for a local religion or a singular people, but a profound and significant moment for all humanity.

The Magi - Malcolm Guite:

It might have been just someone else's story;
Some chosen people get a special king,
We leave them to their own peculiar glory,
We don't belong, it doesn't mean a thing.
But when these three arrive they bring us with them,
Gentiles like us, their wisdom might be ours;
A steady step that finds an inner rhythm,
A pilgrim's eye that sees beyond the stars.

They did not know his name but still they sought him

They came from otherwhere but still they found;
In palaces they found those who sold and bought him,

But in the filthy stable, hallowed ground.
Their courage gives our questing hearts a voice
To seek, to find, to worship, to rejoice.
