THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Welcome to our Service today and welcome if you are reading this at home

9.30am – Holy Communion

HYMNS FOR TODAY'S SERVICE

- 76 - Christ is made the sure foundation
- 53 - Be still, for the presence of the Lord
- 532 - We have a gospel to proclaim
- 518 - Thy hand, O God, has guided

COLLECT

Almighty God,
who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life:
grant that, as by your grace going before us you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Acts 7. 55 – end

But filled with the Holy Spirit, he gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. 'Look,' he said, 'I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!' But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them.'
When he had said this, he died.

EPISTLE READING

1 Peter 2. 2 - 10

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.
Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:
'See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.' To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner', And 'A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.' They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

GOSPEL READING

John 14. 1 – 14

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said to him, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?' Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.'

Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life:
grant us to walk in his way,
to rejoice in his truth,
and to share his risen life;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.
Amen

MESSAGE FROM JENNY –

Peter writes to Christians who are scattered, uncertain, and without a place to call their own.
He doesn't urge them to rebuild what has been lost, but to recognise what God is already doing among them. In 1 Peter 2. 2 – 10 Christ is the cornerstone, and they are 'living stones' being drawn together into a dwelling place for God: they are precious, even when rejected by the world. In John 14, Jesus speaks of preparing a place for us, in calling his disciples not to troubled hearts, but to trust; to remain in him, to know Jesus as the way. That promise is not only of a future, but of a present belonging which is shaped by trust. There's a landing point in this: we do not wait to belong. In Christ, we already belong and are being built together into a living temple for God, stone by 'living stone', with our shared life bearing Christ's presence.

Yours, Jenny

BAPTISMS AND CONFIRMATIONS –

If you would like to explore baptism and confirmation as an adult for this season please could you get in touch directly with Jenny, who welcomes your enquiry and preparation towards what would be a special service – all welcome.

WINGFIELD APCM - 10.30am on Sunday 10th May after the service. All welcome to attend! We will focus on the year passed and plans for the future:

Rector's Report – APCM 2026 (Summary) Abiding in Christ, Making Jesus Known.

The past year has been one of encouragement, steady growth, and deepening shared life at St Mary's. Rooted in prayer and worship, the church is becoming more welcoming, with wider participation in services and ministry. Growth is understood not as something we create, but as part of God's mission (Missio Dei), to which we respond with faithfulness. There are signs of this in increasing involvement across worship, pastoral life, and community events, as well as in important life moments such as weddings, baptisms, and services of thanksgiving. A strong sense of belonging is emerging, supported by events and outreach, including the amazing Village Fete, with thanks to the team!

Looking ahead, the focus is on "abiding in Christ" (John 15), trusting that fruitfulness flows from this. A developing Mission Action Plan will guide the benefice in discerning priorities, with emphasis on welcome, worship, faith, action, and sustainability. Key areas include strengthening intergenerational life, deepening community connections, and expanding children and families ministry. With gratitude for all who serve, we move forward with hope, prayer, and a shared commitment to God's ongoing work.
