TRINITY SUNDAY BENEFICE SERVICE

Welcome to our Service today and welcome if you are reading this at home

9.30am – Benefice Sung Eucharist with Rededication of the Willis Organ

All hymns and music for this service are detailed in the Order of Service

2 - 5pm - Benefice Teas @ St Mary the Virgin, Westwood

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given us your servants grace,
by the confession of a true faith,
to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship
the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith,
that we may evermore be defended from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 40. 12 - 17, 27 - 31

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, or as his counsellor has instructed him? Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust. Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt-offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness.

Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, 'My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God'? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 28. 16 - 20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER –

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever.

Amen.

MESSAGE FROM JENNY –

On this Trinity Sunday, we gather to worship one God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to celebrate the rededication of our Willis organ. Today, we give heartfelt thanks to all who have helped bring this instrument to this important moment in our church's life. We offer our thanks, together with our prayers, to Martin Cooke, our Director of Music, and to the Choir, whose dedication, skill and faithful ministry continue to enrich our worship week by week. We thank Martin and everyone whose generosity, craftsmanship, hard work, and support have brought the Willis organ to this point.

As we celebrate this Holy Eucharist, we are reminded that sacred music draws the Church into the worship of heaven, lifting our hearts and voices in praise of the Holy Trinity. Through hymnody, psalms and anthems, generations before us have proclaimed their faith, and by God's grace, generations after us shall continue to do so. May this revitalised, restored organ continue to lead generations in prayer, praise and thanksgiving to the glory of God.

To God be all honour and glory, now and for ever.
Amen.

Jenny

BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION - Your Calling!

We strongly encourage you to explore baptism and confirmation as an adult for this season. Please could you get in touch directly with Jenny, or the ministry team, who welcome your enquiry.

HUGE THANKS - to Zabé, Clive, Pat and Jo for all they did to encourage 19 children and families to attend the Benefice Half-Term Craft and Play morning at Holy Trinity. We enjoyed meeting everybody and seeing your craft work from dinosaurs to butterflies, from beads to bugs. We had a great time with you, thank you for coming along. We aim to continue with a workshop in each half-term and a session in July and again in August. Please do watch out for news of our forthcoming second Sunday Junior Church. More details to follow.

ST MARY TORY - Thursday 4th June, 6 - 7pm

Next Thursday the small pilgrim chapel will be open for anyone who would like to gather with others in silence. We usually bring flowers or fruit for the floor cloth. It's a brief time to be at peace in stillness with the breath, slowing down and renewing spirit. All welcome.

DIocese OF SALISBURY VOLUNTEERS DAY -

Friday 5th June. We would love for you to join the Diocese Volunteers Day which includes a celebratory lunch and sessions and resources for this context. Do look at the Diocesan website – www.salisbury.anglican.org/ and go along with your friends. Thank you to all who volunteer and serve in our Benefice.
Revd Jenny

SUNDAY 7TH JUNE - SUNG EUCHARIST AND COMMISSIONING OF LAY WORSHIP LEADERS WITH BISHOP KAREN GORHAM

- Please do come and meet Bishop Karen for this special service in which she will commission Alain Cozens, Andrea Unwin and Matt Johns. Amazing hymns and an inspiring sermon. We look forward to seeing you all there. Holy Trinity, 9.30am.

HOLY TRINITY STREET MARKET -

Our popular Street Market, now over 25 years old, returns on Saturday 4th July from 10am – 4pm. The church will be open on 2nd – 3rd July for donations of books, toys, bottles, unused gifts, collectables, pictures and memorabilia in good, saleable condition. Please no jumble, clothes, electricals or heavy furniture.

We will also need donations of cakes, tray bakes, preserves and plants nearer the time. Please could cakes and preserves be given to Marlene for the Mothers' Union stall. Please could traybakes be given to the Hospitality Team for the refreshments stall. Donations should be brought between 9am – 10am on Saturday 4th July.

Volunteers are needed to help on Wednesday 1st July (4pm – 6pm) to help set up, on the day itself, and afterwards on Saturday 4th July (4pm–6pm) to clear away. A sign-up sheet will be available at the Welcome Desk.

Please do also help to publicise this event by inviting family, friends and neighbours. Posters will appear around Bradford on Avon, with extra copies available from Annie in the office. For enquiries contact David Hare: pccsecretary@htboa.org

ORGAN CONCERT – Friday 12th June – 7.30pm - given by David Halls Director of Music at Salisbury Cathedral

We have all become accustomed to have the pipe organ back with us again and, as you know, we very much want to celebrate its return and its 100th birthday! Jenny will be re-dedicating the organ during the 9.30am Eucharist on Trinity Sunday, and then David Halls is coming to give the re-opening concert.

Do pop this into your diary and come! He is playing a super programme that will explore the instruments' colour and scope, beautifully.

Tickets are available now from Annie in the church office. Call in Monday to Wednesday between 10am and 2pm or Friday between 10am and 12noon. Or you can email her – beneficeoffice@htboa.org, and she will keep tickets for you... or buy them on the door on the night. Tickets are £15 to include a glass of wine or a soft drink, served from 6.30pm.
