THIRD SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Welcome to our Service today and welcome if you are reading this at home

9.30am – Chuppa with Revd Jenny and Alain

Theme - Sparrows and all sorts of birds

COLLECT

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts
whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service,
that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 20. 7 - 13

O Lord, you have enticed me,
and I was enticed;
you have overpowered me,
and you have prevailed.
I have become a laughing-stock all day long;
everyone mocks me.
For whenever I speak, I must cry out,
I must shout, 'Violence and destruction!'
For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long.
If I say, 'I will not mention him,
or speak any more in his name',
then within me there is something like a burning fire shut up in my bones;
I am weary with holding it in,
and I cannot.
For I hear many whispering:
'Terror is all around!
Denounce him! Let us denounce him!'
All my close friends
are watching for me to stumble.
'Perhaps he can be enticed,
and we can prevail against him,
and take our revenge on him.'
But the Lord is with me like a dread warrior;
therefore my persecutors will stumble,
and they will not prevail.
They will be greatly shamed,
for they will not succeed.
Their eternal dishonour
will never be forgotten.
O Lord of hosts, you test the righteous,
you see the heart and the mind;
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

Sing to the Lord;
praise the Lord!
For he has delivered the life of the needy
from the hands of evildoers.

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 10. 24 - 39

'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

'So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.
Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

'Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

'Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
and one's foes will be members of one's own household.

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

MESSAGE FROM JENNY –

Reflecting on another successful Village Fete, we give thanks for the many people whose generosity, hard work and good humour made the day possible. The fete is a wonderful expression of village life, bringing together neighbours, friends and visitors of all ages in a spirit of fellowship.

Special thanks go to George, John, David and Fiona, and of course many others, including the children and families of The Mead School, whose enthusiasm and participation brought great energy to the day. Their Eco-Hat Parade was joyful to see and a reminder of the importance of nurturing the next generation's sense of belonging within this village community.

As the parish church, we are privileged to stand at the heart of village life. The fete reminds us that community is not something we can take for granted; it is built and sustained through countless acts of generosity, collaboration and care. These things matter because they reflect something of God's purpose for humanity: that we should live not in isolation, but in relationship with one another. On behalf of St Mary's, sincere thanks to everyone who contributed in any way to the success of the day. Beyond the stalls, entertainment enjoyed and funds raised, the true heart of the fete lies in people coming together. In a world that can often feel fragmented or hurried, this is no small gift, and one for which we are deeply thankful.

Yours
Jenny

BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION -

If you would like to be baptised and confirmed as an adult please could you get in touch directly with Jenny, who welcomes your enquiry and preparation towards what would be a special service – all welcome.

WINGFIELD VILLAGE FETE -

The annual Wingfield Village Fete was another great success, benefitting from a wonderful summer's day and fantastic organisation by Georgina Brown and John Watt.

Some new stalls and events this year, particularly for the children - and some adults - see our Rev. Jenny in the stocks! - and an enchancing Eco Hat Parade with many hilarious ideas from the children and the Mead school.

We raised a total of nearly £6,400 net which will be a welcome addition to our finances.

Huge thanks to George and John and all who contributed their time and effort so generously. David
